Bake-O's continue their hot start with a big win over Men O'War. Travis Henry is the big star with three TDR's, but Matt Hasselbeck's two +50 TDP's helped as well. MOW are the hard luck loser, scoring 40 behind Tom Brady's three TDP's and Jamal Lewis's two +50 TDR's. Ego are next for Bake-O's in a battle of unbeatens.

-------------------	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----	-----------------	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	---	----

Egomaniacs get balanced scoring--six points or less from six starters--to stay undefeated and keep Hook-Ups on the schneid. Appropriate, since this was Knaak's sixth win in a row. The only difference between the teams this week was that Hook-Ups only got points from four starters. Otherwise the teams were fairly well-matched.

LW4 are the lowest scoring of the four undefeated teams, but scoring doesn't matter if you get the wins. Just ask TWC. They know. Ted's guys get the upset of Outlaws,led by John Hall's 54 yard FG. Outlaws' mighty RB tandem goes scoreless and dooms Jim to the netherworld of 1-1.

The Rowdy Scots get out of bed, turn in a lineup, and win the UFFL's version of the "Bay of Pigs". John Kasay is FG Guy, and the dual Tyrone offense pays dividends for the second straight week. For Joe, there are just seven losses in a row, and the knowledge that Outlaws is next up on the schedule for Rod. Small consolation, that.

Brett rises up from the depths of his self-imposed obscurity long enough to lay the smack down on Chunky Soup, who aren't mmm-mmm good so far in 2003, falling to 0-2 and the early pits of the THMBSCL Division cellar. T.J. Duckett inexplicably scores two TDR's to lead MM to the win.

Sea Stags rebound from the Week 1 loss by soundly thrashing the floundering Rebels. Donovan McNabb goes scoreless for the second week in a row as the Rebels have fewer points in two games than Priest Holmes had in this one alone. Holmes scored three TDR's to lead Sea Stags to the W.

TWC seeks to continue their return to dark-horse status by scoring more than 30 points for the second week in a row. Ahman Green's +50 TDR and Drew Bledsoe's +50 TDP pace the Chaos attack. Iron Men made a valiant run on Monday Night, but come up two points short and fall to 1-1.
