the Mel Gray game

BIG TIME!

Lethal Weapon 4 – 35 Sea Stags – 34

In what has to be the game of the year so far in the UFFL, Lethal Weapon 4 took a 27-22 lead after the early Sunday games and held on by their fingertips to score a huge one point victory and claim the THMBSCl Division championship and clinch the Number One seed for the UFFL playoffs.

QB Peyton Manning and RB Domanick Davis each had 12 points to carry the load for LW4, while SS leading scorer Priest Holmes ran in his 16th and 17th TD's of the season to lead their effort.

The score of the game was 35-34 going into Sunday Night. LW4 WR Keenan McCardell was held scoreless, leaving the game in the hands of SS WR Santana Moss on Monday night. The closest Moss got to the end zone was the Tennessee 7 on an end-around, and LW4 squeaked out the win.

Sea Stags fall to 8-5. They should finish second in the division and be either the #3 or #4 seed in the playoffs, depending on the turnout of their game with Outlaws in Week 14. You never know, though...this is the UFFL, after all.

Santana Moss tried, but couldn't score the points on Monday night to put LW4 away

Bake-O's 25 - MacBain's 69th Highlanders 19

The Rowdy Scots prove that in the UFFL, a team with no running game and decent receivers can hang with a team with a handful of running backs and no receivers, but that no team can survive 3 missed FGs and a missed XP. Josh Brown's 10 points in a Seahawk rout of the hapless Browns prove to be the difference as John Kasay's 4 points and 4 missed kicks doom both MacBain and the Panthers to brutal stretch drive losses. -- commentary by Dan Shim

Chunky Soup 33 - Renegade Rebels 22

Renegade Rebels continue their nightmare season, falling to 5-7-1 with a loss to the Chunkmeisters, who find themselves in the midst of the playoff chase. At the moment, only a loss to Men O'War is keeping them out of the #5 seed. They can win and make the playoffs with a little help. Renegade Rebels may have escaped the ignominy of being the lowest scoring team ever but Lord, they're not that far away.

Hook-Ups 39 - The Windmilling Chaos 5

Hook-Ups rise above their recent past to layeth the smacketh down on TWC. With a little luck HU could finish third in THMBSC. Not bad for a tanker. :-) TWC meanwhile has lost seven games in a row and would be celebrating the possibility of having the #1 in the draft next year, except it was traded to Rage last year for Duce Staley. Yep. That Duce Staley. This from the same organization that traded Priest Holmes to Sea Stags for Drew Bledsoe and draft picks that became Drew Brees, Joey Harrington, and D'Wayne Bates. Yep. That D'Wayne Bates. Hell, maybe I am tanking and just didn't know it.

Iron Men 26 - Egomaniacs 14

WTF??? How does Iron Men beat Egomaniacs in 2003? Egomaniacs blow any chance at the #1 seed and are on a very slippery slop as far as their hold on the division lead goes. Iron Men, playing for pride and to finish above Joe V, brought in a pretty good performance. They're still 3-9-1, though, and could still finish at the bottom of the UFFL standings. And yep, Rage has their first round pick as well, thanks to Renegade Rebels.

Men O'War 25 - Munchen Mavericks 24

Men O'War win by their third one-point margin of the season. That might be a record, I dunno. Someday I'll be able to tell you, but not now. They control their own playoff destiny and can clinch the #5 seed with a win over Iron Men in Week 14. They could even move to #4 if they win and Sea Stags lose to Outlaws (as that combination would drop Sea Stags to #5). Munchen Mavericks are still in the mix as well, but they need a win and some help.

Outlaws 30 - Rage 8

Outlaws put themselves in position to win their division if they beat Sea Stags and Egomaniacs lose to Rage. Granted, that's not bloody likely, but that's why they play the game. Crapshoot, baby. Rage is gonna shoot their wad in a desperate effort for Week 14 glory, so anything can happen. I mean hell, Joe V has IM and TWC first rounders, so he's assured of two of the first three picks next fall no matter what happens. Of course, in 2002 that means William Green, T.J. Duckett and Clinton Portis, and in 2003 Larry Johnson, Charles Rogers, and Onterrio Smith. Not the most inspiring of places to find yourself in. Of course, in typical Rage fashion he'll probably trade both picks for Rudi Johnson and a tube of Ben-Gay.
