the Mel Gray game

77!

Outlaws – 77 Sea Stags – 38

For the second week in a row, Sea Stags lose the Mel Grey game in spectacular fashion. Unlike last week, however, this one was not significant for its drama and close score. This was an ass-whipping of historic proportion laid down by Outlaws, who scored a UFFL-record 77 points behind a UFFL-record 42 individual points from Clinton Portis, that included five TD runs, two of which were +50 yards. Outlaws also got 24 points from QB Jeff Garcia, who had four TD passes and two TD runs.

Sea Stags got a fine effort; indeed, they'd have won any other game played last week—most weeks, for that matter. Two TD runs from Priest Holmes and 17 points from liquored-up K Mike Vanderjagt are nothing to sneeze at, unless you have a cold, of course.

After all this, these teams each finished in second place in their division. Outlaws finish 9-4-1 and get the #3 playoff seed. Sea Stags finish 8-6-0 and will be #4.

King of the world, ma!

Chunky Soup TE Shannon Sharpe looks in envy at Outlaw RB Clinton Portis' shiny new UFFL Single-Game Scoring Champion belt

UFFL Central correspondent Dan Shim files the following report:

"In what could amount to a huge case of premature ejaculation, Outlaws lay a record setting wad on the Sea Stags behind 42 points from Clinton Portis and another 24 from Jeff Garcia to make LaDanian Tomlinson's 9 look rather pedestrian. Think about what they could have done with a kicking game. Someone should ask the Rebels how long it took them to score 77 points to start the season. Sea Stags, doing a little pre-playoff dribble of its own, score more Week 14 points than anyone else besides the Outlaws, only to get nipped by 39. We might even see these two teams in the finals, assuming they have anything left -"

Bake-O's 21 – Hook-Ups 18

In a mildly scintillating finale in which the Quincy Morgan Hail Mary fails to materialize and save the Chefs' season, Morgan outscores Marshall Law 3-0 on a Monday Night to break an 18-18 tie and lead Bake-O's to the season sweep. Hook-Up owner James Woo immediately protests the outcome on the basis of being forced to start an aging, injury-prone RB over his homeboy, Rock Cartwright. -- commentary by Dan Shim

Chunky Soup 26 – The Windmilling Chaos 26

TWC break their 7 game losing streak, but a fantastic 14 point Monday Night performance by Jeff Wilkins enables Chunky Soup to salvage a tie and snatch Week 14 playoff honors away from TWC due to the insidious best-record tiebreaker. TWC get their best performance in weeks behind 14 points from Ryan Longwell, but still finish in the THMBSCL cellar, pathetic and alone. Chunky get the honor of playing Outlaws in Week 15. Wheeee!

Egomaniacs 37 – Rage 19

Egomaniacs clinch the THMBSCL title and #2 playoff seed, and Rage get the #1 draft pick for Renegade Rebels. A three-pronged attack of Culpepper, James, and Elling (good name for a law firm) lead the EGO attack, while Rage get 12 points from Buckhalter and precious little else. Better luck next year, Joe V...enjoy the #2 and #3 draft picks!

Lethal Weapon 4 14 – MacBain's 69th Highlanders 8

This is like that line in "Lion King" when Timon says, "We're gonna fight your uncle for this? THIS is our #1 playoff seed? Struggling to beat a MacBain team that headed for the tors weeks ago? If Garrison Hearst hadn't been hurt, Barlow might not have scored, then where would they have been? 8-8 tie, that's where. See Ted, this is what happens when you hitch your star to Peyton Manning. Congrats on the 11-3 record, though. Good luck in the playoffs!

Men O'War 34 – Iron Men 21

Men O'War actually manage to win by more than one point, and sneak into the playoffs as the #5 seed. Three Jamal Lewis TDR's lead the way to this big win. Iron Men manage to stay out of the MEMROIR cellar thanks to Rage, but a season of promise still ended badly for them, with a 3-10-1 record and Michael Vick's broken leg having us all saying "what if....?" It will haunt me for days, watch. I'll be sleeping, then wake up muttering "Mike, Mike..." and wondering just what the hell it all means.

Muchen Mavericks 24 – Renegade Rebels 20

Speaking of seasons gone bad (sounds like a bad FOX TV show), what about RR? 4-1 Fantasy Bowl favorites in the preseason, they just never got it going and 227 points later find themselves in offense hell. I remember seasons where just Steve Young and Emmitt Smith combined scored more than 227 points for RR. Ah, how the mighty have fallen. They didn't even beat MM this year! MM won this one due to Steve McNair and his 14 points and both teams now look to 2004 and hope to build anew.
